

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2ND ANNUAL DISPOSABLE FILM FESTIVAL BIKE-IN SCREENING TO HIT
SAN FRANCISCO IN MAY 2010

SAN FRANCISCO California (March 28, 2010) – The Disposable Film Festival will host its 2nd annual outdoor Bike-In screening on May 12, 2010 in partnership with Good Hotel and Globe Bikes. The screening is in support of San Francisco Bike Week, and comes the evening before the 16th San Francisco Bay Area Bike To Work Day, set for May 13. The screening will boast an encore presentation of the DFF's 2010 Competitive Shorts from 8:00-10:00 PM. This program sold out two screenings at the Roxie during the premiere in March.

Other special event features will include an Underground Market put on by Forage SF to begin at 4PM and run into the evening, and a raffle with great prizes, including a free two night stay gift certificate for the Good Hotel, Crumpler bags, and a very special, limited edition Globe Bike. Bike valet will be provided through the San Francisco Bike Coalition.

The event will be held in the parking lot across the street from the Good Hotel, on 7th Street at Minna, San Francisco.

ABOUT THE DISPOSABLE FILM FESTIVAL

This unique festival was created in 2007 to celebrate the artistic potential of disposable video: short films made on non-professional devices such as one-time use video cameras, cell phones, point and shoot cameras, webcams, computer screen capture software, and other readily available video capture devices.

Festival cofounder Carlton Evans is available for interview.
